

CRI Activities

The Carpet and Rug Institute actively monitors and engages on issues related to the carpet industry through integrated communications, government relations and advocacy, regulatory systems participation, research funding, and standards development.

Membership Benefits

- Opportunity for networking within the industry and with industry allies
- Platform for shaping public policy through state, local, national and international advocacy
- Extensive technical coordination and information about changes in regulatory requirements
- Technical resources to help your company face the challenges of an ever-changing environment
- Member rates for Green Label Plus and Seal of Approval testing
- Unified communication on behalf of the industry about the benefits of carpet and rugs
- Promotion in CRI communications
- Access to statistical reporting
- Strict maintenance of member confidentiality

Membership Categories

CRI has four categories of membership:

Carpet Manufacturers

Allied Manufacturers

Associate Members

Non U.S./Non-Voting Members

For more information on how to join CRI, contact Susan Newberry at snewberry@carpet-rug.org or 706•428•2114

The Carpet and Rug Institute • 100 S. Hamilton Street • Dalton, GA 30720